

The Current Condition of the Japanese Machine Tool Industry

Monthly Machine Tool Orders (December 2020)

The total value of machine tool orders in December was 99.06 billion yen. This was an increase of 11.7% compared to November 2020 and marked the second consecutive month of month-on-month growth. Moreover, this figure represented an increase of 9.9% compared to the same month of the previous year and marked the second month of year-on-year growth.

The total amount of orders has exceeded 90 billion yen for the first time in twelve months since December 2019 (90.11 billion yen).

In regions other than China which is performing well, a gradual recovery trend continues, but we would like to pay close attention to the impact of the re-expansion of infection on machine tool orders.

Domestic orders rose by 17.8% over November, amounting to 31.84 billion yen. This marked the month-on-month growth for the first time in three months. However, this figure was a decline of 14.6% from the same month of the previous year and marked the twenty-fifth consecutive months of year-on-year decline. Looking at major industries, orders compared to November rose by 15.8% in industrial machinery, by 23.6% in motor vehicles, by 35.1% in electrical & precision machinery, and by 41.1% in aircraft, shipbuilding & transport equipment.

Foreign orders rose by 9.0% over November to 67.22 billion yen, marked the second consecutive month of month-on-month growth. Furthermore, foreign orders showed an increase of 27.3% over the same month of the previous year, and this marked the second consecutive month of year-on-year growth. By region, orders from Asia rose by 25.3% over November to 41.36 billion yen. Moreover, this was an increase of 109.1% over the same month of the previous year. Orders from Europe fell by 3.6% from November to 9.82 billion yen. This was a decrease of 19.1% from the same month of the previous year. Orders from North America fell by 3.5% from November, amounting to 16.26 billion yen. This figure was a decline of 16.9% from the same month of the previous year.

Machine Tool orders for 2020 totaled 901.84 billion yen, which was a decline of 26.7% from the previous year. As a result, calendar year 2020 posted the year-on-year decline for the second consecutive years and fell below 1 trillion yen for the first time in ten years. Total domestic orders fell by 34.2% from the previous year to 324.46 billion yen, and total foreign orders fell by 21.6 % from the previous year to 577.38 billion yen.
