

The Current Condition of the Japanese Machine Tool Industry

Monthly Machine Tool Orders (October 2023)

The total value of machine tool orders in October was 112.05 billion yen. This was a decrease of 16.3% compared to September 2023 and marked the first month of month-on-month decline in two months. Moreover, this figure represented a decrease of 20.6% compared to the same month of the previous year and marked the tenth consecutive month of year-on-year decline. Total orders fell below 120 billion yen for the first time in two months, however exceeded 100 billion yen for 33rd consecutive months.

Orders in October decreased due to the drop in special factors in September, but no major changes have been observed in the order situation, so we will keep a close eye on trends, including the timing of a pick-up.

Domestic orders fell by 25.3% from September, amounting to 33.64 billion yen. This marked the first month of month-on-month decline in two months. Furthermore, this figure was a decrease of 24.5% from the same month of the previous year and marked the fourteenth consecutive month of year-on-year decline. Looking at major industries, orders compared to September fell by 20.0% in industrial machinery, by 22.4% in motor vehicles, by 40.3% in electrical & precision machinery, and by 26.7% in aircraft, shipbuilding & transport equipment.

Foreign orders fell by 11.8% from September to 78.41 billion yen, marked the first month of month-on-month decline in three months. Likewise, foreign orders showed a decrease of 18.7% from the same month of the previous year, and this marked the tenth consecutive month of year-on-year decline. By region, orders from Asia fell by 5.7% from September to 30.55 billion yen. This was a decrease of 31.6% from the same month of the previous year. Orders from Europe fell by 12.0% from September to 18.21 billion yen. This was a decrease of 5.1% from the same month of the previous year. Orders from North America fell by 19.4% from September, amounting to 27.55 billion yen. This figure was a decrease of 8.2% from the same month of the previous year.
